

We have a strong north wind hitting us and the boats tied to the docks are suffering under the onslaught. Andy Anderson, Steve Kramer, and I spent some time this morning rescuing several boats. Some sustained damage and even the dock rub rails have suffered minor damage. I will continue checking as long as we have this wind.

So, if you have a boat at the dock... it's time to go check it out.

Thanks,

Mike Shettlesworth
October 3, 2012