

The "Charlie Wells" will head for its biennial Coast Guard inspection, painting and maintenance in Tacoma, making its last run from the island on Sunday, September 23rd at noon. The ferry is anticipated to be out of service not more than two weeks, returning Saturday, October 6.