

An Emergency Preparedness Meeting will be held this Saturday, November 10th at 12:30 p.m. at the Community Building. This meeting will focus on First Aid techniques and information about the various classes that are available for Members. Everyone is encouraged to attend.